

Position: Adjunct Faculty in the School of Adult and Graduate Studies

Location: Asheville, Charlotte, Morganton, Durham, Rocky Mount, and/or Online

Summary: Adjunct faculty teaching opportunities are available for undergraduate and graduate programs in Asheville, Charlotte, Durham, Rocky Mount, and Online. The disciplines with the greatest need include:

- Psychology/Human Services
- Counseling
- Information Systems
- Economics
- Accounting

Education: Applicants must hold an earned doctorate in the field to teach in a master's level program. A minimum of a master's degree in the field is required to teach undergraduate courses. Online experience is preferred for those wishing to teach in our online programs. Our course management system is Moodle.

Additional Counseling Program Qualifications: Applicants must hold a doctoral degree in Counseling or Counselor Education. The ideal applicant exemplifies agreement with Montreat College's Christ-centered Mission, Vision, and Values by demonstrating and articulating a personal Christian faith; will have graduate level college teaching experience and a clear professional identity as a mental health counselor.

Supervision: Director of Campus & Faculty Services
Vice President & Dean of Adult and Graduate Studies

Application Requirements/How to Apply:

Submit the following documentation online here.

- Application <https://www.montreat.edu/wp-content/uploads/2017/08/application.docx>
- Letter of Intent
- Resume or Curriculum Vita
- Copies of Institutional Transcripts
- Statement of Personal Faith
- Statement of Christian Teaching Philosophy
- Three Letters of Recommendation

For more information about Montreat College, our Christ-centered mission, the Adult and Graduate Studies programs and locations, and the hiring process, please email Julia Pacilli, Director of Campus & Faculty Services at julia.pacilli@montreat.edu.

About Montreat College:

Montreat College is a Christian liberal arts college accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to offer masters, bachelors, and associate degrees. The main campus is located in the Blue Ridge Mountains fifteen miles east of Asheville, North Carolina, a region recognized as one of the most attractive living environments in the United States. Satellite campuses in Asheville, Charlotte, and other sites supplement the main campus.

The College is committed to Christ-centered teaching and learning, and is a member of the Council for Christian Colleges & Universities.