Position: Adjunct Professor for Survey of Art

Location: Montreat, NC

Date Available: August 2012

Job Description:

The Adjunct Professor in Art will teach a survey course of painting, sculpture, architecture, and the minor arts of Western and non-Western cultures from ancient times to the thirteenth century. This is a 3-credit lecture class in art history/appreciation and provides Humanities credit as well as a required course for the Art Minor. Teaching faculty members develop their own syllabus and grading rubric. This specific class meets in the fall semester on Tuesday and Thursday from 11 a.m. to 12:20 p.m. in Belk 219, and has a maximum enrollment of 25. Fall classes begin August 21, 2012.

End-of-semester student evaluations are required.

Requirements:

- Master’s degree in Art
- Support of college mission

Application Requirements: Candidates should send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, transcripts, statement of faith, and three current letters of reference to:

James D. Southerland, M.F.A.
Montreat College Box 831
P.O. Box 1267
Montreat, North Carolina, 28757 or via email to:
jsoutherland@montreat.edu

About Montreat College:

Montreat College is a Christian liberal arts college accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to offer masters, bachelors, and associates degrees. The main campus is located in the Blue Ridge Mountains fifteen miles east of Asheville, North Carolina, a region recognized as one of the most attractive living environments in the United States. Satellite campuses in Asheville, Charlotte, and other sites supplement the main campus. The College is committed to Christ-centered teaching and learning, and is a member of the Council for Christian Colleges & Universities.