

Seeking Adjunct Faculty for Bachelor of Science in Cybersecurity (100% online)

Montreat College's cutting-edge and visionary Cybersecurity program prepares students to solve the cybersecurity issues and concerns faced today in many corporate and government environments. Montreat College is actively engaged in developing government, industry, and educational partnerships in the field of Cybersecurity.

Position: Adjunct Faculty (part-time, online) Cybersecurity instructor

Location: Online

Start Date: January 2017; course development opportunities may be available earlier, depending on qualifications and need

Summary: Adjunct faculty teaching opportunities are available for the online, undergraduate program major in cybersecurity

Duties and Responsibilities:

The candidate will be responsible for the facilitation of learning in 100% online Cybersecurity courses. Adjunct faculty must demonstrate a high level of engagement with the course in Moodle resulting in online teaching excellence, supported by relevant IT/Cybersecurity industry experience and certifications. Adjunct faculty may be offered courses on the basis of a single, individual course contract with no guarantee of future course load assignment.

Qualifications:

Successful candidates will demonstrate a professional and personal commitment to the mission, vision, and statement of faith found here: <https://www.montreat.edu/about/mission/>.

Our adjunct faculty members will also demonstrate support for Christian liberal arts education and the specific ability to integrate faith and the discipline of Cybersecurity in a compelling, thoughtful manner.

Preference will be given to candidates who possess publications in the field of IT/Cybersecurity with the potential for continued scholarly work.

Education/Experience:

An earned doctorate in Computer Science, Information Systems, Information Security, or Cybersecurity is preferred; a master's degree is required. Industry certifications such as CISSP, CISM, and SANs are a plus.

Supervision: Director of Campus & Faculty Services

Vice President & Dean of Adult and Graduate Studies

Application Requirements/How to Apply:

Submit the following documentation online here.

- Letter of Intent
- Resume or Curriculum Vita
- Copies of Institutional Transcripts
- Statement of Personal Faith
- Statement of Christian Teaching Philosophy
- Three Letters of Recommendation

For more information about Montreat College, our Christ-centered mission, the Adult and Graduate Studies programs and locations, and the hiring process, please email Julia Pacilli, Director of Campus & Faculty Services at julia.pacilli@montreat.edu.

About Montreat College:

Montreat College is a Christian liberal arts college accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to offer masters, bachelors, and associate degrees. The main campus is located in the Blue Ridge Mountains fifteen miles east of Asheville, North Carolina, a region recognized as one of the most attractive living environments in the United States. Satellite campuses in Asheville, Charlotte, and other sites supplement the main campus. The College is committed to Christ-centered teaching and learning, and is a member of the Council for Christian Colleges & Universities.

