The Montreat College Friends of Music was established by Eunice Stackhouse and members of the Montreat community to bring excellent music and musicians to Montreat for the benefit of students, to enrich the community, and to provide scholarships for deserving music students. In the years since, the Friends of Music have succeeded in doing all of those things and more, but only because of the generous gifts of people like you. Please take a moment to consider sending a gift today to help us continue.

Meet the students who are benefiting from the music and scholarships provided by the Friends of Music:

“My calling as a worship leader has definitely been confirmed through coming here, through the program, through all the classes, through the encouragement of my professors. I know this is what God wants me to do...what he made me to do and how he wants me to serve. He’s blessed me with these certain talents. The least I can do is use them for His glory.”
– Desiree Duff, Senior Worship Arts Major

“The community and the intimacy of the program is great because you get a lot of attention – it’s personal in terms of what you want to do...Faculty and even students will help you find who you are and exactly what it is you want to do.”
– Mykiea Russell, Music Business Spring 2013 Graduate

PERFORMERS FOR THE 2013 FALL SEASON

On Sunday, October 27th at 3 p.m. in the Chapel of the Prodigal the Friends of Music will present a concert featuring The North Greenville University Chamber Players. This NGU faculty-comprised ensemble will present works by Couperin, Pleyel, Mozart and Brahms. The performers include: Joy Sears, flute, Sonja Coppenbarger, bassoon, Darian Washington, French horn, Leslie Taylor Warlick, violin, Michael Weaver, viola, Brenda Leonard, cello and Fabio Parrini, piano.

Seniors Rebecca Shaw and Gloria Sainio will be performing a joint recital on October 20th, 2013 at 3pm in the Chapel of the Prodigal. Rebecca is a piano performance major completing her requirement for an accompanying recital. She has studied extensively with Dr. Eunice Stackhouse. Gloria is a music business major with a concentration in voice and she has studied with Jane McCoy and Timothy Wilds. In addition to being active members of the college choir during their time at Montreat, both have enjoyed serving in various student leadership positions around campus.

A VERY SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY

Many of you have enjoyed our scholarship fundraising luncheon and through it have helped many of our music students. This year we are offering the opportunity for a “VIP” experience at our Christmas concert. Join us for an excellent dinner, featuring special music, followed by the Christmas concert featuring our college choir and chamber orchestra. The cost of the meal is $45 per person, with proceeds going to the Friends of Music Scholarship fund. Mark your calendar now for December 7 at 6 p.m., and keep your eyes open for a personal invitation in late November.

DOUBLE BASS FUND

The Music Department is raising $1,500 to purchase a double bass to be used by students in the orchestra and contemporary ensemble. If you would like to make a special contribution to this fund, please indicate this on your contribution.
