Graduates, their families, and friends are invited to the

Montreat College Baccalaureate Service

Friday, May 10, 2013
7:30 p.m
Gaither Chapel

The tradition of conducting a baccalaureate service first began at Oxford University in 1492 when each graduating senior was required to deliver a sermon in Latin. Today, baccalaureate services exist as a final chapel service which recognizes and celebrates the efforts and accomplishments of graduating seniors. It is a service comprised of worship towards the faithfulness of Christ and thanksgiving for lives dedicated to learning and wisdom.
