SONGS

* Processional

The children of the King are we, The children of the King; His emblem bearers we would be, And so His banner bring; Its colors gleam all gloriously, As forth its folds we fling; The children of the King are we, The children of our King.	The earth, it is His garden fair, The garden of the King; Where flowers and little children share His love for everything; The whole wide world lies in His care, Beneath His brooding wing; The earth, it is His garden fair, The garden of the King.
---	---

O heed with us the happy call To worship of our King. Come join us in His temple all Who hear His church bells ring; Your souls shall feel His blessings fall, And know His comforting; O heed with us the happy call To worship of our King.	Our lives are links of years and days, Wherein to serve our King; Like Him, to help in loving ways, While homeward journeying. Our lives, our lives, shall sing His praise As now our voices sing; Our lives are links of years and days, Wherein to serve our King.

* "The Children of the King," the traditional commencement song, was composed by Mrs. Crosby Adams (1858-1951), and has been sung each year since the college's first commencement forty-seven years ago. Mrs. Crosby Adams was a renowned composer, author, musician, and lecturer, who founded the Music Department of the college.

Recessional

Brightly gleams our banner Pointing to the sky, Waving wand'ers onward To their home on high. Journeying o'er the desert Gladly thus we pray; And with hearts united Take our heavenward way.	All our days direct us In the Way we go, Lead us on victorious Over every foe; Bid thine Angels shield us When the storm clouds low'r Pardon, Lord, and save us In the last dread hour.

Jesus, Lord and Master, At Thy sacred feet, Here with hearts rejoicing See Thy children meet; Often we have left Thee Often gone astray; Keep us mighty Saviour, In the narrow way.	Then with saints and angels May we join above, Off'ring pray'rs and praises At Thy throne of love; When the toil is over Then come rest and peace, Jesus in His beauty, Songs that never cease.

Refrain: Brightly gleams our banner
Pointing to the sky,
Waving mortals onward,
To their home on high.
