THE CHILDREN OF THE KING

The children of the King are we,
The children of the King;
His emblem bearers we would be,
And so his banner bring;
Its colors gleam all gloriously,
As forth its folds we fling;
The children of the King are we,
The children of our King.

O heed with us the happy call
To worship of our King.
Come join us in His temple all
Who hear His church bells ring;
Your souls shall feel His blessing fall.
And know His comforting;
O heed with us the happy call
To worship of our King.

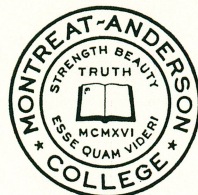

The earth, it is His garden fair,
The garden of the King;
Where flowers and little children share
His love for everything;
The whole wide world lies in His care,
Beneath His brooding wing;
The earth, it is His garden fair,
The garden of the King.

Our lives are links of years and days,
Wherein to serve our King;
Like Him, to help in loving ways,
While homeward journeying.
Our lives, our lives, shall sing His praise
As now our voices sing;
Our lives are links of years and days.
Wherein to serve our King.

ALMA MATER

How dear to our hearts will memory be
Of the days we have spent in thy care,
When within thy dear halls we have lingered awhile
All thy gifts and thy blessings to share.
So the memory of thee will ever remain
While we think of each dear hallowed scene;
And the bonds of true loyalty, blest through the years,
Our affections will ever keep green.

Then, to thee, Alma Mater, we'll ever be true.
Though the coming years scatter us far;
And the ideals you taught us will ever be bright
Shining out as our life's guiding star.
We will cherish thy name wherever we roam,
And forever thy praises repeat.
Hail to thee, Alma Mater, our happiest days
Are the days we have spent in Montreat.

MONTREAT SINGERS — Lawrence Skinner, Director

Go forth into the world
in peace, be of good courage;
hold fast to that which is good;
render to no man evil for evil;
Strengthen the faint hearted:
Support the weak; help the afflicted; honour all men; love and serve the Lord, rejoicing

in the power of the Holy Spirit.
And the blessing of God Almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost be upon you, and remain with you forever.
Amen.
