

A Graded Descriptive List of the Musical Writings of
MRS. CROSBY ADAMS

INSTRUCTION BOOKS AND STUDIES FOR THE PIANO

FIRST GRADE

Preliminary Studies for the Piano, Op. 2430
<small>To familiarize the student with the Staves, Clefs and Keyboard, bass and treble clef being used from the first lesson.</small>
Those Five Fingers, Op. 36, Part One50
<small>Children should early become familiar with all tonalities. Simple transpositions occur constantly.</small>
Music Reading Book for Piano Beginners, Op. 27	1.00
<small>Short melodies with words, adaptable for all phases of study. The interchangeable use of both hands and both clefs makes this book of peculiar value.</small>
The Very First Lessons at the Piano, Op. 990
<small>Very widely used. The lessons are attractive to the student, while the instruction is fundamentally sound and progressive. A book universally recommended.</small>

SECOND GRADE

Those Five Fingers, Op. 36, Part Two50
The Music Student's Spelling Book60
<small>One of the best.</small>
Home Study Book, Op. 33, Part One40
<small>This work supplements "The Very First Lessons at the Piano."</small>

THIRD GRADE

Home Study Book, Op. 33, Part Two40
Work and Play Book, Op. 3475
<small>Designed to crystalize the thinking ability of the pupil into committing to paper his reactions to music itself.</small>
Graded Studies for the Piano—Gathered from Many Sources	each 1.00
<small>The superior teaching value of this Series places it in the van of all collections of studies. It can be begun here by the use of Book One; thereafter followed in sequence by Books Two, Three, Four, Five, Six and Seven; these take the student to the study of the classics.</small>

THIRD AND FOURTH GRADES

Pedal Studies, Op. 29 (Summy Edition No. 79)	1.00
<small>These can be begun in the third grade and continued through the following grades. Treating the study of the pedal from the standpoint of correct hearing instead of watching the markings, these studies are revolutionary.</small>

FOURTH AND FIFTH GRADES

Thirty Improvisations in all the Major and Minor Keys, Op. 28 (Summy Edition No. 67)	1.00
<small>These studies encourage invention, imagination and self-expression on the part of the student.</small>
The Aeolian Harp, Op. 28, No. 25 is published separately25

PIANO SOLOS

FIRST GRADE

Shetland Ponies, Op. 35 (words by Satis N. Coleman)30
<small>The accompaniment is played by the teacher.</small>
Giant Steps } Op. 17, Nos. 1 and 230
Eifland Horns }
<small>Furnishing interesting practice in descriptive playing.</small>
Primary Tone Pictures, Op. 4 (Summy Edition No. 3)60
<small>Helpful in acquiring technical ease and freedom, and the use of both clefs.</small>
Six Small Gems, from Op. 950
<small>Favorite selections from "The Very First Lessons at the Piano."</small>

SECOND GRADE

A Five-Way Sketch, Op. 2560
<small>Showing five ways of treating a melody: as a Solo, Duet, Duo, Trio, and Quartet.</small>
Five Tone-Sketches, Op. 1 (Summy Edition No. 2)50
<small>This Op. 1 has passed through many editions. "In the Rocking Chair" and "Dance of the Marionettes" with second piano parts written by Francis Womack, have made many friends.</small>
Also published separately:
Singing and Swinging25
In the Rocking Chair25
