Departmental & Special Awards

The Greybeard Players Theatrical Excellence Award

Available to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have documented financial need and who have demonstrated excellence and potential in the field of theatrical arts through exemplary participation in the work of the Greybeard Players.

The Music Award

Established in 1990 to recognize the graduating senior(s) who has contributed most to the music program, in both academic and extracurricular music classes and activities.

The American Bible Society Scholastic Achievement Award

Presented by the American Bible Society upon recommendation of the Christian Ministries Division to a student who has excelled academically and has potential for making a significant contribution in the field of Biblical Studies.

The Environmental Studies Award

Awarded annually to graduating seniors within the Environmental Studies program. Award recipients are chosen by the Environmental Studies faculty based on academic achievement, Christian commitment, servant leadership, and leadership among students.

The NAIA All-American Scholar-Athlete Award

This Award recognizes excellence in the classroom and on the field of play. Nominees for this honor must be junior or senior varsity performers who have been enrolled at their nominating institution for a minimum of one full term. They must also maintain a GPA of 3.5 on a 4.0 scale from their nominating institution.

The Kim Denise Trapnell Servant Leader Award

Established in 1994 in honor of Kim Denise Trapnell, an outstanding example of student leadership. Given annually to the student who best demonstrates a servant's heart in leading others through service, attitude and relationships.

The Elizabeth H. Maxwell Literature Award

Given to a graduating senior who has demonstrated outstanding achievement in literary studies as determined by the English faculty. Requirements include that the student major in English, maintain a GPA of 3.2, take at least one course from each full-time member of the English faculty, and demonstrate creativity and maturity in the field of literary studies

The History Award

May be given to a graduating senior deemed especially outstanding as a student of history. The recipient is usually but not limited to a history major or minor.

The Outdoor Education Award

Given to a graduating senior deemed especially outstanding, who is a candidate for a bachelor of science degree in Outdoor Education. Requirements include that the student is committed to a career in Outdoor Education, maintains a GPA of 3.0, has taken advantage of certification programs offered during their tenure, has made an outstanding contribution to the OE department, has demonstrated creativity, maturity and excellence in teaching in the field of Outdoor Education, demonstrates he/she is a servant leader, and bears evidence of a committed Christian Life.

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities & Colleges

Members are selected for this national organization as outstanding campus leaders according to scholarship ability, participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, citizenship and service to the school, and potential for future achievement.

The Faculty Service Award

The faculty annually recognizes a graduating senior who has made outstanding contributions to the college and who gives evidence of effective Christian citizenship.

The David L. Parks Distinguished Professor Award

Established in 1992 by the Board of Trustees in honor of Dr. David Parks' many years of faithful service to the college. This award is chosen by the faculty using the criteria of creative and effective teaching, scholarship, personal and professional integrity, and commitment to the mission of the college.
