COLLEGE HYMN Betty Ferrell / John Dykes

(1) Montreat, you stand in noble line
(2) For learning with integrity,
With those who strive for heart and mind
For truth imparted full and free,
Who seek God’s truth to teach and guide
For loving friendships cherished still,
Who live those virtues which abide.
For heritage on which to build,
For servanthood, both taught and lived,
With Christ the Cornerstone of grace,
Our honor and devotion give.
Our Alma Mater we embrace.

CONVOCATION SPEAKER

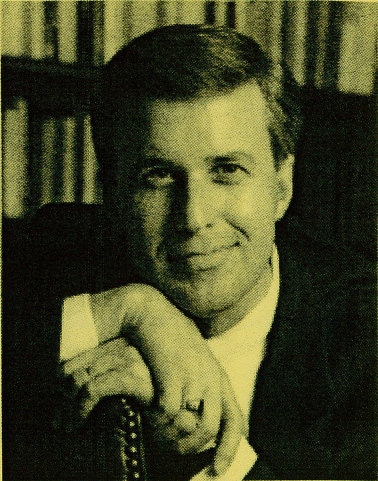

Dr. M. Craig Barnes is senior pastor of the National Presbyterian Church in Washington, D.C. Dr. Barnes and wife Anne have one daughter, Lyndsey.

Dr. Barnes was raised on Long Island, New York. He holds an undergraduate degree from The King’s College in New York and a Masters of Divinity degree from Princeton Theological Seminary. Upon completing seminary, he was ordained and called by the First Presbyterian Church of Colorado Springs to become their Minister of Young Adults.

In 1984, he took a leave of absence from the parish to pursue a Ph.D. from the Divinity School of the University of Chicago. There he studied Church History under Martin E. Marty, a leading scholar of the American Church. After completing his course requirements for the doctorate in 1986, he returned to the parish in Colorado Springs where he assumed the duties of Minister of Education. In 1988 he was called to be the senior pastor of Christ Presbyterian Church in Madison, Wisconsin. His tenure there was marked by a vision for a church in the world.

Dr. Barnes completed his Ph.D. in 1992 with a dissertation on John R. Mott. He has since published four books: Yearning, When God Interrupts, Hustling God, and Sacred Thirst.

In 1993, Craig Barnes was called to serve as the senior pastor of National Presbyterian Church in Washington, D.C. In addition to preaching and providing pastoral care to his large congregation, he is leading the church into a ministry of grace to the city of Washington.

Dr. Craig Barnes
