COLLEGE HYMN

Betty Ferrell/John Dykes
Led by Dr. Robert G. Boer
Assistant Professor of Music

Montreat, you stand in noble line
With those who strive for heart and mind
Who seek God’s truth to teach and guide
Who lift those virtues which abide.
For servanthood, both taught and lived,
Our honor and devotion give.

For learning with integrity,
For truth imparted full and free,
For loving friendships cherished still,
For heritage on which to build,
With Christ the Cornerstone of grace,
Our Alma Mater we embrace.

CONVOCATION SPEAKER

Dr. Tisa Lewis joined the faculty of Montreat College in 1987 as Professor of Human Development and Christian Education. She received her B.S. degree in Biology from the University of South Carolina; her M.A. and her Ph.D. in Christian Education from Southern Seminary. She has done post-graduate work in women’s studies, examining such topics as spirituality and psychotherapy. She was awarded the David L. Parks Distinguished Professor Award by her fellow faculty members at Montreat College in 2004. Her popularity as a professor is evident by the fact that she has been voted Teacher of the Year at Montreat College by both the faculty and the students and Person of the Year by the Montreat College Student Government Association. She was honored by the YWCA’s Tribute to Women in Industry. She is a member of the Association of Professors and Researchers in Religious Education, the National Women’s Studies Association, and a supervisor of the Certified Pastoral Educators Association. She recently collaborated with two University of Oregon professors on a book called Girls Rock! Fifty Years of Women Making Music, published by the University of Kentucky Press. She worked as a script supervisor on the short film “Scrambled Eggs,” about domestic violence, as well as working on a television pilot of a show called “Soul Purpose.”
