

Position: Assistant Professor of Natural Science

Location: Montreat, North Carolina

Start Date: August 2021

Summary: Montreat College seeks a full-time faculty member in the Natural Sciences Department to join a growing and dynamic team in the natural and health sciences. Montreat College's enrollment has grown rapidly in recent years, and the college has identified the natural and health sciences as a strategic area for the future of the college. This faculty member will instruct introductory level natural science courses, as well as teach physics courses to students preparing for graduate school in the health and natural sciences. Astronomy, and other courses as-needed.

Duties and Responsibilities: The candidate will be responsible for:

- Teach general education courses in the Natural Sciences Department, including but not limited to physics, astronomy, applied mathematics, introductory natural science courses, and other courses determined by background and departmental needs.
- Teach required physics courses to students who plan to enter graduate school in the health and natural sciences
- Advise students in the natural and health sciences
- Participate in faculty committees as necessary.
- Support the college's recruitment and retention efforts by participating in and supporting recruitment and retention activities
- Other duties as described in the Faculty Handbook.

Qualifications: Successful candidate will affirm and support the Mission, Vision, and Statement of Faith of Montreat College as found here:

<https://www.montreat.edu/about/mission/>

The successful candidate will also demonstrate support for Christian liberal arts education and the specific ability to integrate faith and the discipline in a compelling, thoughtful manner.

Teaching excellence and a willingness to serve the broader college community through service and committee work are also expected.

Education/Experience:

A Ph.D. in any area of the natural sciences is required, including at least 18 graduate credits of physics. College level teaching and research experience preferred.

Supervision:

Vice President of Academic Affairs

Application Requirements/How to Apply:

Review of applicants will begin winter 2021 and continue until the position is filled.

Candidates are requested to send the following materials:

- 1) Completed application
- 2) Letter of Application
- 3) Curriculum Vitae
- 4) Transcripts of Undergraduate and Graduate Work
- 5) Statement of Faith
- 6) Statement of Philosophy of Christian Higher Education
- 7) List of Three References with Contact Information

Send materials by email to:

Dr. Linda Neuzil
Interim Vice President of Academic Affairs
Montreat College
c/o Exercise Science Search Committee
Linda.neuzil@montreat.edu

About Montreat College:

Montreat College is a Christian liberal arts college accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to offer masters, bachelors, and associates degrees. The main campus is located in the Blue Ridge Mountains fifteen miles east of Asheville, North Carolina, a region recognized as one of the most attractive living environments in the United States. Additional locations in Asheville, Charlotte, and Morganton supplement the main campus. The College is committed to Christ-centered teaching and learning, and is a member of the Council for Christian Colleges & Universities.